c. There was considerable discussion of the Arab-Israeli situation. It was noted that the Watch Report concluded that hostilities could occur at any time with little or no warning. There are no milestones which might suggest when hostilities would be most likely. It seems quite likely that a major outbreak will occur before the end of the year.

d. The DCI, remembering what happened in 1973, suggested that OCI pay particular attention to possibilities of political deception or disinformation by both the Arabs and Israelis.

e. Mr. Proctor noted the article in the Washington Monthly by Mr. Marks, [redacted] Mr. Marks also discusses ways of identifying CIA personnel operating under State cover in any embassy.
